Improvements Costing Over Million Dollars Dedicated To Use Of Public

Dedication of two new sections of the Perry Highway was celebrated Wednesday with appropriate exercises, when the new viaduct over the Connoquenessing creek, at Zelienople and the new section of the Perry Highway, between Pine Creek and Wexford, were thrown open to use officially.

Ribbon cutting ceremonies took place at Zelienople and at the Hotel Weller in Allegheny county, and were attended by officials of the Perry Highway Improvement Association, State Highway Secretary, Warren Van Dyke, and many others from Western Pennsylvania.

New Castle represented by Fred L. Rentz, a prominent member of the Perry Highway Improvement Association, who has always been interested in road improvement. President L. G. Genkinger, of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, and E. N. Hanlon, secretary of the New Castle Motor Club. Many others attended from Ell-

PA NEW OBSERVES

South Mill street has taken on a race track atmosphere, according to a group of residents who are complaining about reckless driving by quite a few motorists.

A corps of highway men was busily engaged filling holes along the New Castle-New Bedford road Wednesday. Quite a few roads were badly torn up following recent snow and rain.

A post warning approaching motorists of a railroad crossing ahead has been knocked down along the Harbor road, Young Pa New noted Wednesday.

Some New Castle calendars will hang in a home in far-away Argos, Greece—oh they probably will because Pa New saw them being wrapped by a downtown business man today who's mailing them the 5,000-mile distance to relatives. He said they have a few of the larger calendars over there.

For the odd sights department: Despite the morning's slope weather, Young Pa New spotted a young man wearing a pair of black and white shoes, along East Long avenue.

Several large new trucks passed through New Castle last evening, and painted on the doors was the lettering: "City of New York, Bureau of Sanitation." Two of the trucks passed through at about 7 o'clock and two more were seen going through the downtown district about 9:30.

No new information for motorists is contained in the Detour Bulletin for the period ending January 22, issued by the Pennsylvania Highway Department. There are no new detours in the district and only a few in existence at all in the western part of the state.

Same Problems Were Burning Issues Here Hundred Years Ago

"Should the Constitution of the United States be amended?"
"Ought provision to be made by law for the support of the poor?"
"Should interest on money be regulated by law?"
"What are the causes of the present pecuniary embarrassment of the country?"

Sounds like debate subjects for a college debating team, or some questions to be settled by a meeting of citizens. All of them timely in this year 1937, all of them questions that are moot at the present time. But wait. They are not taken from any college debating team, neither has a public meeting been announced to consider them. They are questions before the Mercer County Lyceum, a debating and literary society which flourished in 1837 a century ago, and in the years following through 1842, in New Castle, Pennsylvania.

In Mercer County New Castle in 1837 was in Mercer county for Lawrence county was not established until 1849, and the line between Mercer and Beaver counties was what is known now as County Line street. South of the line there was little of the city, practically all of it being north. A minute book of the famous old

Crisis Reached In Tacoma Case

Fear Kidnap Will Not Take Ransom Of $28,000 Provided

By RALPH B. JORDAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 7.—The most critical period in the sensational Mattson kidnaping mystery today appeared to be at hand. The crisis was this—the abductor of 10-year-old Charles Mattson, son of a prominent Tacoma surgeon, must either free the boy within the next 24 hours or law enforcement agencies will feel justified in assuming he either does not intend to release his victim—or is unable to do it.

Ransom Ready
The growing fear that the desperate will not take the $28,000 ransom in the case, which has been ready for days in bills exactly of the denominations he demanded, and then release his victim, followed the last desperate move of Dr. William W. Mattson, the boy's father, to clear all possible obstacles from the path of negotiations.

The physician, after obtaining the promise of all federal and local officers to maintain a "hands off" policy until the boy is released, appealed to the press for closest cooperation—an appeal which was recognized promptly and fully granted. Investigators now take the stand that nothing further can be done to bring about the brightest culmination—the return of the boy alive and well—and that if the kidnaper continues to keep silent there is nothing left to do but throw the forces of the law into an attempt to apprehend him—and discover the disposition of his victim.

Madrid Defense Head Says Greatest Battle Of Spanish War In Progress

By THOMAS A. LOAYZA
International News Service Staff Correspondent

MADRID, Jan. 7.—One of the bitterest engagements of the Spanish civil war raged a few miles northwest of Madrid today, the loyalists being compelled to fall back slowly after fierce fighting against a powerful rebel force composed mostly of Germans, Italians, Moors, and foreign legionnaires. Gen. Jose Miaja, head of the Madrid defense Junta, described the battle as the greatest of the war. He estimated 10,000 Germans were participating.

Conflict Intense
Opposing forces have fought in this region, between Madrid and Escorial, for several days, but last night the conflict became intense as they engaged in a fierce artillery duel.

At dawn the rebels, led by picked German units, attacked loyalist positions south of the city.

Roosevelt Is Disappointed

Supreme Court Judges Fail To Attend Congress Session To Hear Message

(Copyright, 1937, by International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—President Roosevelt was disappointed because the supreme court justices did not hear his message to congress in which he pointedly discussed their interpretation of the constitution. Before Mr. Roosevelt went from the speaker's office into the house chamber to deliver his message, he asked:

"Is the supreme court there?"
Informed the justices would not be present in a body the president expressed regret.

"I'd like for them to hear it," he said with a smile, those in the room with him stated today.

Were Sent Cards.

While the justices were sent cards, no official invitation was issued by congress. Attaches of the court asserted that the court did not attend joint sessions unless invited by resolution. The court heard arguments while the president was speaking.

Mrs. Charles E. Hughes, wife of the chief justice, was among those in the presidential gallery. She did not change expression during the president's remarks on judicial cooperation.

The seats for cabinet officers were arranged on one side of the speaker's rostrum, instead of directly in front of it as usual. Thus, room was left for chairs for the justices had they expressed a desire to be present in a body.

May Propose Naval Blockade Of Spain

By KINGSBURY SMITH

LONDON, Jan. 7.—A great "clearing house for hate"—a conference of major European powers at which international troubles arising from the Spanish civil war would be threshed out—was proposed today by Britain.

Alarmed over the Leftist-Fascist crisis, Britain again took the leadership in peace efforts, putting forward the conference plan as a means of winning favorable replies on non-intervention from Berlin and Rome. A fresh appeal was also addressed

General Condition Of Pope Unchanged

(International News Service)
VATICAN CITY, Jan. 7.—The papal court was distressed today by word from the pope's sick-room that he had spent a night in pain. His general condition, it was stated, however, is unchanged. It was feared nevertheless that lack of sleep and his suffering would further weaken the pontiff, whose heart is under a constant strain.

New Legislation On Wages-Hours Now Forecasted

Congress Takes President's Message As "Go-Ahead" Signal To Session

SUBSTITUTE NRA PROVISIONS SEEN

Battle For Amendment To Federal Constitution Will Be Sidetracked

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The congressional fight for wage-and-hour amendments to the federal constitution collapsed today as a result of the president's opening message to congress.

Instead, the president's remarks were widely interpreted as giving congress a "go ahead" signal in the enactment of substitute NRA legislation. His demand that the supreme court co-operate with congress was accepted as notice that he will fight for his interpretation of the constitution.

"I think the president clearly implied to congress that a constitutional amendment is not necessary," said Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas, the Democratic leader, and frequently a spokesman for the White House.

Advocates of legislation designed to enforce maximum hours of labor and minimum wages and to ban child labor were jubilant over the president's attitude.

The administration is expected to propose substitute legislation and again challenge the supreme court. The administration's plan, it was reported, was:

Traffic Lights Asked At Corner

Council Gets Petition For Action At Wallace And Jefferson Corner

Citizens residing in the vicinity of North Jefferson street and Wallace avenue today petitioned council during their meeting at City Hall to place some kind of traffic light at that intersection to make auto and pedestrian travel more safe.

Mayor Charles E. McGrath, in explanation said the traffic bureau of the police department some time ago recommended that something be done at this corner.

The mayor said that, in his belief, blinker lights, one placed north of Wallace avenue and another placed south of the same avenue, would work out for the benefit of all concerned.

Attorney Charles Matthews represented the petitioners, and council indicated a blinker light would be placed. However, no time for placing the lights was designated.

Finds Live Mouse In Letter Box At Downtown Corner

Postman Fred C. Kuech didn't save all of the contents he found in the mail box at the Washington-East street corner on his first trip today—for part of the contents was a live mouse!

"Someone probably dropped it in the slot last night for fun," said Kuech. "I've found other things than mail before—but never a living mouse."

The rodent scrambled out of the dirt-littered mail and sailed off as the box was opened.

Crown Princess Juliana Marries Prince Bernhard At The Hague Ceremony

Princess Juliana and Prince Bernhard von Lippe-Biesterfeld

(International News Service)
THE HAGUE, Jan. 7.—Royal love that began less than a year ago at their first meeting was sealed at the altar today when Crown Princess Juliana, future ruler of 68,500,000 subjects, and Prince Bernhard of the little German principality of Lippe-Biesterfeld, were married.

Amid the wild cheers and joyous songs of hundreds of thousands who jammed the Hague.

Carnival gaiety of all Holland was increased tenfold when the rain squalls and wind gusts that had threatened to mar the brilliance of the wedding fled with the dawn, and a bright sun burst into a cloudless sky.

Bearing with a joy that showed this was no "marriage of convenience" arranged by ministerial graybeards, the 27-year-old crown princess and her bridegroom, a year and a half her junior, drove first in colorful procession to the little town hall, where they were married civilly by the smiling burgomaster.

With the roar of the people rising in constant crescendo, they went through the orange-decorated

Charge Farmhand Started Fire Which Caused Two Deaths

(International News Service)
CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., Jan. 7.—Young Ralph Hawk wasn't ready to get married, so, unready, state police charged today, he started the fire which claimed the lives of a widow and her daughter—mother and sister of his bride-to-be.

Formal charges of assault and battery with intent to kill and of arson were on file against the 20-year-old Marion farmhand, who allegedly had admitted causing the deaths of Mrs. Hazel Gelwick, 39, and her daughter, Helen, 15.

Corp. Arthur Snyder, of the state police, said he had a signed admission from Hawk that he set the New Year's day fire "to get rid of the whole family," including Catherine, 20, whom he was to marry the following day.

Catherine was pulled from the burning bungalow, unharmed by the flames, but suffering serious head injuries. Franklin county coroner A. W. Thrush said he had evidence of "foul play."

The bungalow, Snyder said, had been partially soaked with coal oil before the fire was started.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Despite congress' swift passage of emergency legislation to provide a leak-proof neutrality law, shipment of arms to strife-torn Spain was still legal today because of a senate error.

Exporters who obtained licenses to send $7,384,050 in aircraft, arms and ammunition to the Spanish loyalist forces can do so until the resolution becomes law tomorrow afternoon.

Senate Error.

In the excitement of jamming the measure through, the senate neglected to give Vice President Garner authority to sign it immediately, hence the rule requiring such resolution to lie over one day, applied.

Fail To Identify Brunette Killed By Police Car

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 7.—The body of a pretty brunette with dark eyes and dark complexion, killed when allegedly struck by a police radio car, lay in the county morgue today, unidentified.

Her clothing was well-worn and bore no marks of identification. She carried no purse.

Patrolman David Huston, 34, was driving the radio car when the young woman apparently walked into its path as it cruised in the neighborhood. She was rushed to a hospital, where she was pronounced dead from a compound skull fracture.

Huston said he was hitting the car in an attempt to avoid hitting her. An eye-witness corroborated his testimony.

Cotton Undergoes Operation Today

County Commissioner Moved To Hospital Critically Ill Due To Ruptured Appendix

County Commissioner Floyd Cotton, of R. F. D. No. 6, is critically ill in the Jameson Memorial hospital, having undergone an emergency operation for a ruptured appendix at 6:30 this morning.

Mr. Cotton was taken ill early this morning and was rushed to the hospital, where it was found that his appendix had burst, due to infection.

The folks who went to Florida or down to Mississippi may find they didn't need to go unless just for the trip, for if they went for balmy days, they left back at home and didn't need to pack their grips and start the roads to roam. CROWN PRINCESS JULIANA MARRIES PRINCE BERNHARD

Given Lecture Just like any other couple, Juliana and Bernhard were given a homely lecture of sage advice by the burgomaster on how to be happily married. Dutch custom dictates that the talks be given, and no exception was made in the case of the crown princess, any more than it was when her mother, Queen Wilhelmina, was married in the midst of similar scenes of rejoicing 35 years ago.

The rest of the civil marriage service was brief and formal, consisting of a few questions and "I do's" by the bride and bridegroom, and signing of the marriage book by the couple and their witnesses.

At the insistence of the stern queen, brought up in simple Dutch taste, the ritual at the Austre church was likewise with little adornment.

It began with a prayer, then a hymn, and a long speech by the officiating clergyman, the Rev. Willem Leonard Welter, former court chaplain.

When the prince and princess exchanged their vows, they also exchanged wedding rings, another Dutch tradition, and a Bible was presented to them.

Church Decorated Juliana and Bernhard knelt on red carpets before the two chairs which were marked by their coats of arms. Juliana's carried lions and the motto, "Je Maintiendrai" ("I will maintain") and Bernhard's had birds clinging to stars.

The plain interior of the church was brightened only by a few lions and palm trees on the altar. A special choir from Haarlem and the bright uniforms of some of the foreign princes and government representatives added a touch of color.

There was no throne for Queen Wilhelmina. She sat alone on a plain chair. Around and behind were grouped the other notables.

Crown Princess Juliana, the radiance of her lovely complexion heightened by her obvious happiness, wore a rich velvet gown cut on simple lines and shot with gold flecks and a tulle veil.

Her 12 bridesmaids, six of them Dutch girls with whom the princess went to University of Leyden, and six Dutch noblewomen and German princesses, wore gowns of various pastel shades, blending into an attractive picture.

Bernhard had 12 groomsmen, all his personal friends.

been greatly retarded because each important question had to be referred back to home governments.

To Accept Plan Internal Spanish questions, however, would be barred, external problems menacing peace alone being on the agenda.

Germany and Italy, according to information reaching London through diplomatic channels, plan to accept the anti-volunteer plan in principle tomorrow, asking for a guarantee of Russian sincerity while Germany is expected to make sweeping recommendations.

A naval blockade of Spain with chief European powers participating, is reported to be one German proposal.

Inspection and control of all airports in Spain, a ban on financial aid to the belligerents, and land frontier control are other Reich suggestions.

Foreign secretary Eden has advised France, however, that Britain will not consider a blockade of the Spanish coast by France and England alone.

Europe was greatly relieved today at the speed with which the emergency resolution placing an embargo on shipment of war goods to Spain passed the United States congress.

wood City, Butler, and Beaver county points.

Zelienople turned out en masse for the celebration at that point, which took place at 3:30 p. m. The stores were closed and schools dismissed. The entire section of Main street was gaily decorated with flags and bunting and the decorations used during the holiday season.

A platform had been erected on the bridge, and the program took place with C. S. Passavant III serving as master of ceremonies. The Hon. William C. Crickshank, Howard Graham, O. O. Dersheimer and William S. Crickshank, were presented, and brief talks were given by Press C. Dowler, chairman of the improvement association, Fred L. Rentz and a number of others.

Ribbon Is Cut

At the conclusion, the ribbon which had been stretched across the bridge, was cut by little Peggy Frishkorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Frishkorn, and Billie Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Henderson. Mr. Frishkorn is president of the Zelienople council.

The bridge and new section of highway has been in use for the past three weeks, but the official opening did not take place until yesterday.

The stretch of highway extending from Zelienople a little less than two miles north, replacing a three-mile stretch of the former highway and eliminating bad curves in the mountains, cost about $300,000. The other stretch of four miles, between Perryville and Wexford, cost approximately $1,000,000.

The celebration at Zelienople was followed by a similar event at Hotel Grand, topped off by a dinner, and more speaking.

C. S. Passavant, III and J. E. Rhinesmith, of Zelienople, took prominent part in arranging the dedication ceremonies which took place there. The late C. S. Passavant, Jr., who died about a year ago, had been deeply interested in this improvement, and had worked hard for better roads in that community.

The light on the new viaduct were given by his family in his memory.

dustries clearly operating in interstate commerce.

2. A law giving states authority to erect embargoes against importation of goods produced in violation of fixed standards of labor.

3. Expand federal trade commission law to give industry the right to curb "cut-throat" competition and other trade practices.

Chairman Sumners (D) of Texas, of the House Judiciary committee, a foe of wage-and-hour amendments to the constitution, declared that Mr. Roosevelt's attitude dooms all such attempts in the present session.

Predictions that congress will legislate on labor and trade conditions were freely made.

"I think public sentiment demands that one of three things be done," said Rep. Ramspeck (D) of Georgia, member of the House Labor committee. "They are a national law on minimum wages and hours or a constitutional amendment giving congress this power, a national incorporation bill or a supreme court decision upholding the Wagner act so that labor and management can settle problems together. Personally, I prefer the latter method."

Senator Black (D) of Alabama and Rep. Connery (D) of Massachusetts prepared for an immediate fight for a national 30-hour week bill, while Senator O'Mahoney (D) of Wyoming planned to seek early hearings on his national incorporation measure.

FDR'S Son Begins White House Job

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—James Roosevelt, the president's eldest son, has started work at the White House as an aid to his father.

His job, at first, is to "take care of odds and ends," Mr. Roosevelt said. Later in the year, it was expected, he will become a permanent member of the White House secretariat, filling a vacancy created by the death of Louis McHenry Howe. "Jimmy's" first job was accompanying the president to the capital to deliver his annual message to congress.

Export licenses for non-military aircraft to France totalled $504,500 for December, against $222,775 for the entire preceding 12 months. December shipments of aircraft to Mexico were $203,500 compared with the 12-month total of $121,363.

opening message, which, while ostensibly addressed to the coordinate legislative branch of the government, in reality was directed squarely at the supreme court and to the lesser federal judiciary which collectively have hamstringed important sections of the New Deal with injunctions and invalidations. Mr. Roosevelt hopes it can be accomplished during the next four years without resort to the tortuous method of a constitutional amendment. But if it can't be, then he is entirely reconciled to amending the basic law, loath as he is to take that method, it was indicated.

Governor Reappears

Detroit, Jan. 7.—Hope of peace in the $5,000,000,000 automobile industry today wavered uncertainly during a series of rapid-fire developments, including the re-appearance of Gov. Frank Murphy into the situation which has left an estimated 11,000 men and women idle.

Gov. Murphy, close personal friend of President Roosevelt, held a surprise conference in a hotel here with William S. Knudsen, vice president of strike-harassed General Motors, and James F. Dewey, federal conciliator.

The huddle followed a series of conferences held last night between the United Auto Workers union and G. M. high command during which Gov. Murphy declined to comment as he entered the conference room.

Promptly after the G. M. conference, Michigan's new governor hurried over to the Fisher building for a continuance of strike conferences with union leaders which started last night with federal mediators acting as go-betweens.

nine miles northwest of Madrid. Fighting still was raging late today. The German units were reported to have suffered severe losses because of their close formation.

The rebels were believed intent on cutting the important road to Escorial and other regional roads leading into the capital.

Loyalist Losses Announced Contrary to past stands, military and political circles in Madrid made no attempt to minimize seriousness of the insurgent offensive or to hide loyalist retreats. Censors allowed news of loyalist losses to be sent abroad.

The Madrid militarists admitted the "picked foreign units" had wrought great destruction in their recent advance with up-to-the-minute armaments which are proving effective against the capital's defenders.

The battle raged also in the University City and Casa Del Campo sectors, at the capital's very edge. Big artillery guns pouring out a ceaseless, roaring fire. Houses vibrated to the cannonading throughout Madrid.

The loyalists gained ground on the southern front today, however.

If you want to really GET RID OF GAS and terrible bloating, don't expect to do it by just doctoring your stomach with harsh, irritating alkalies and "gas tablets." Most GAS is lodged in the stomach and upper intestine and is due to old poisonous matter in the constipated bowels. They are loaded with ill-causing bacteria.

If your constipation is of long standing, enormous masses of dangerous bacteria accumulate. Then your digestion is upset. GAS often presses heart and lungs, making life miserable. You can't eat or sleep. Your head aches. Your back aches. Your complexion is sallow and pimply. Your breath is foul. You are a sick, grouchy, wretched, unhappy person. YOUR SYSTEM IS POISONED.

Thousands of sufferers have found in Adierka the quick, scientific way to rid their systems of harmful bacteria. Adierka rids you of gas and cleanses your bowels. Give your bowels a REAL cleansing with Adierka. Get rid of GAS. Adierka does not gripe—it is not habit forming. Becker's.

debating society has just come to light through the action of C. H. Akens. The book was found among the effects of Judge L. J. McGuffin, years ago, one of the pioneer jurists of this county. Judge, then plain L. McGuffin was a member of the society and among the officers and members are found some of the famous old names of this county.

Joseph Pollock, M.D., after whom Pollock township was named (ever hear of it) was president of the society. Vice presidents included Dr. Whipple, Jno. Reynolds, Esq., W. Carpenter, D. Ewer, Rev. R. Semple and J. Emery. The treasurer was Dr. Bartow and the recording secretary was H. E. Wallace. Directors included A. C. Semple, J. N. Euwer, J. Alexander and the corresponding secretary F. J. Clark. These officers were elected at the meeting held January 2, 1837 at which Mr. McGuffin presided as temporary chairman. For several of them it was the first meeting.

On that night the committee in charge reported the subject for debate on January 6, 1837. It was "Is the vendor of ardent spirits chargeable with the crimes of the drunk?" The debate closed at nine o'clock and the judges awarded the decision to the forces for the negative.

Amend Constitution On Monday night, March 10, 1837 the Lyceum heard a debate on the question "Should the United States Constitution be amended?" The question was settled in the affirmative by a vote of 19 to 9. Later the United States did amend its constitution concerning slavery and other questions debated by the Lyceum.

One of the old questions debated was "Has superstition been more productive of evil than ambition?"

Another was "Have the Indians more right to complain against the inhabitants of the United States than the slaves of the United States?" "Is the project of establishing a college in New Castle worthy of an effort?" "Is the practice of reading fictitious works beneficial to the community?" (Page Sinclair Lewis.)

"Is intemperance caused by the drinking of ardent spirits a greater moral and national evil than slavery?" "Should the law of Pennsylvania authorizing capital punishment be repealed?" Even then the powers of the president were very much in discussion. One subject for debate in November 1842 was "Ought the president to be invested with the veto power?"

The old minute book is a gold mine of interesting data. In those days the debating society was a power in the community which unfortunately has fallen into use in these modern days of radio and automobiles.

Getting to the meeting of the so-city was not a matter of getting there in an automobile and getting there at a few minutes. The members walked or in some cases rode horseback or in buggies. Amusements were few and primitive and the debating society loomed large in the entertainment and educational life of the citizens.

Out of the names in the old Mercer County Lyceum came leaders in this community. Judge McGuffin, J. N. Euwer, pioneer merchant, Joseph Emery, the first sheriff of Lawrence county, Dr. Joseph Pollock whose name will always be revered here, Wallace, Semple, Alexander, all of them rugged individualists of the type that made this nation what it is.

RESERVE OFFICERS

Lt. Col. Fair will be the speaker tonight at a meeting of the Officers Reserve which meets in the Federal Building at eight o'clock. The subject of the group discussion will be "The Defensive."

How to Make Better Cough Remedy Than You Can Buy

A Big Saving, and It's So Easy! No Cooking!

Cough medicines usually contain a large quantity of sugar syrup—a good ingredient, but one which you can easily make at home. Take 2 cups of granulated sugar and 1 cup of water, and stir a few moments until dissolved. No cooking! No trouble at all.

Then get from your druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle, and add your syrup. This gives you a full pint of truly wonderful medicine for coughs due to colds. It is far better than anything you could buy ready-made, and you get four times as much for your money. It lasts a long time, never spoils, and children love it.

This is positively the most effective, quick-acting cough remedy that money could buy. Instantly, you feel it penetrating the air passages. It loosens the unless you learn how to thin yourself properly. You can't do everything you want to do. You've got to pick and choose and concentrate a bit if you want a decent crop. A lot of little apples may be sweet, but you can't put them on the market.

"The kind of apples you want is nice, solid, shapely ones with a good color and plenty of juice in them.
The kind that have a nice feel in your hands and make a nice crunch when you chew them and have a good flavor to them. . . I always
to it and juice and flavor something you can take a good satisfactory bite out of."

A young fellow ought to produce a good crop, one he can be proud of, and then he ought to be content—or at least as quiet as a good apple tree—to drop his leaves and prepare himself for the winter that's sure to come, just like it comes to these old trees of mine. . .
Just remember what I'm telling you and you'll save yourself a whole lot of trouble."

I didn't pay much attention and perhaps these aren't his exact words—but I do remember that once an old farmer compared life to an apple tree and there was wisdom in his words.

Company Union Plan Is Upheld

Carnegie - Illinois Representatives In Pittsburgh Conference Support Plan

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 7.—The Pittsburgh district council of employee representatives of Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation today met again today to further consider a policy of defense or opposition to the "Company Union" plan at the hearing before the National Labor Relations board in Washington next week.

Yesterday the "Company Union" adherents defeated the John L.
Lewis forces when the council, by a vote of 21 to 1, with 14 not voting, passed a resolution putting that body on record as favoring the employee representative plan.

An attempt by Elmer J. Maloy, chairman of the council and self-admitted backer of Lewis, to defeat the resolution by passing another in its place was turned down by a 29-2 vote, with five not voting.

Defeat of the Lewis forces was softened somewhat, however, by a change in the original draft of the resolution—a change favored by the Maloy followers who contended the wording of the original draft cast a reflection on testimony recently given before the National Labor Relations board.

Tonight's "Variety Show" at the Y. W. C. A. auditorium is going to be something really entertaining.
Its purpose is to provide an amusing evening for the public and those who have seen the preview are satisfied that it will. Curtain at 8.

"Pay-Off Banquet' Tops Off Contest For The Townsman

Victors of a recent attendance contest dined at the town's expense when members of The Townsman, civic group here, held their annual year-end holiday party at New Wilmington last night.

The winners, led by Dr. Theodore K. Heess, and the losers, headed by Robert Winter, enjoyed dinner as musical entertainment was provided by two Westminster College students, Earl Johnson and Charles Smith. Cards were the diversion later.

President Dean M. Staley, presided over a brief business meeting, announcing that a regular initiation ceremony will take place on Wednesday, January 13. The coming of Judge Benjamin Lencher, Pittsburgh, as the speaker for the community fathers' and sons' banquet on February 26, was also announced.

John R. Hodge was chairman of the party committee.

Two Ordinances Given Approval

When council convened in the municipal building today, council reported favorably from committee bills designating titles for two clerks in the city solicitor's office.

One bill abolishes the title of city stenographer and names the position "chief clerk" because the former city stenographer, Miss Sarah Boyles, has been working for a long time on delinquent tax matters. Councilman Fink urged the bill, saying the title is a misnomer.

Miss Mary Maher, who was named a clerk in the department some time ago, today received the title of "assistant clerk." She will do the stenographic duties connected with the solicitor's office.

Miss Boyles' salary, $99 per month, will remain as it is. A rate of $65 per month was set for Miss Maher. Previously she was paid $220 per day.

College square dancing they call it at Westminster college. With a dyed-in-the-wool Missouri Ozarks fiddler who holds his fiddle cradled on his forearm, the Women's Athletic association of Westminster college will sponsor a square dance and a Virginia Reel on Friday evening, January 8, in the college gymnasium. In keeping with the unsophisticated dancing, the admission price will be "two bits a couple."

Miss Frances Craig, director of women's athletics and "square dance coach," is an advocate of the old-fashioned art as opposed to ballroom dancing.

"Square dancing," Miss Craig says, "is experiencing a revival throughout the country. It is the real old American form of dancing, expressive of the rural people in an agriculturally fostered nation."

President of the W. A. A.-sponsored square dance is Miss Mary Jane Metzler, New Castle. Others on the committees include Erma Paden, Poland, decorations; Peggy Sloan, Aspinwall, decorations; Sue Irons, Beaver, publicity, and Mary Boyd, Wilkinsburg, tickets.

Anti-Strike Sentiment Is Now Evident

Flint Alliance For Security Of Jobs, Homes And Community Formed

(International News Service)
FLINT, Mich., Jan. 7.—Anti-strike sentiment, rumbling under the surface since Flint trolley bus drivers went on strike a month ago, broke out into the open because of strikes in General Motors plants today with formation of the Flint alliance "for the security of our jobs, our homes and our community."

George E. Boysen, former mayor civic leader and famous here because of his outspoken support of labor in the past, was induced to take over leadership of the movement by groups of factory workers sponsoring it.

Boysen immediately issued a call for volunteers as soon as he established headquarters here. He said purpose of the movement was to "keep the anti-strike sentiment orderly as well as to show how Flint stands" regarding widespread strikes here.

Summon Three Steel Plant Men To Washington

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 7.—Three members of the Pittsburgh district committee of employee representatives, Carnegie-Steel corporation's "company union," were summoned today to appear before the labor relations board, which resumes its sessions in Washington Monday.

The three, all members of the group opposed to the CIO, the Lewis organization seeking to organize the nation's great industries, will testify in connection with complaints lodged by the CIO against the corporation's employee representation plan.

The Lewis group has charged the "company union" was being used as a tool by steel operators and was intimidating and coercing employees.

Committee Meeting Wednesday Plan To Send One Full Troop To Washington

Plans were formulated in the Boy Scout Office in the Greer Building Wednesday evening in connection with the annual National Boy Scout Jamboree, which will be held in Washington, D. C., from June 30 to July 9.

The following committee members met in the office and discussed the local end of the Jamboree: Rev. A. M. Stump, chairman; W. W. Horne, Professor B. K. Thacker from New Castle, and Ralph Main and Boyd Barrett, from Ellwood City.

One full troop composed of boys chosen from all of the scout troops in Lawrence county will represent the Lawrence County Council at the Jamboree in Washington.

Plans for preparing a descriptive bulletin to be distributed to the various troop leaders were discussed and the bulletin will be mailed in the near future. This will give the requirements and the method of selection of the boys who will attend the Jamboree.

New Congressman Delays Neutrality Vote

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—A shy little man, who quit 16 years of service with the Eveleth, Minn., fire department to come to Washington, today sadly expressed regret that his first official act on his new job was to toss a monkey wrench into the carefully oiled neutrality machinery of his political idol—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

But—if it could be done over he would still toss the monkey wrench whether it meant blocking the president's efforts to stop an arms shipment to Spanish Loyalists or not.

That was the position of John T. Bernard, a new member of Minnesota's Farmer-Labor house delegation, and he would like to explain why he shouted, "I object" four times in broken English late yesterday, thereby tying up the whole works on the embargo question.

"I wanted to have some debate on such an important question," he said simply.

Held His Ground
He proved he knew how to get it when he stolidly held his ground during the tumultuous session which ended with the neutrality resolution passing the house an hour too late to stop the first shipment of arms to Spain at the three-mile limit after it had put out of New York two and one-half hours earlier.

Administration leaders had beaten down all objection for unanimous consent to clear the decks for quick passage, when Bernard took the floor and "objected." Nobody paid

Police On Watch For Speeders Says Mayor McGrath

Tells Council That Speeders Will Be Arrested—Laws Violated

During council meeting at the city building today it was said by Mayor Charles E. McGrath that police are now watching for speeders in different parts of the city.

The mayor said that no campaign to make a lot of arrests is under way but any person caught speeding will be promptly arrested and fined.

During the past year Mayor McGrath has publicly warned that speeders would be arrested but apparently speeding has not abated, he said.

Councilman Joseph D. Alexander said that speeding in Wilmington avenue is apt to result in serious accidents.

He told colleagues that scant attention is paid to the quiet zone near the Jameson Memorial hospital.

Councilman B. F. Butler also said that speeding in North Jefferson street is going on and recommended arrests and fines upon conviction.

Mayor McGrath said that police officials and he had recently reached a decision that speeding here would be abated.

The election carries with it a membership in the executive council of the association and makes Miss Beery a state delegate to the summer NEA convention to be held in Detroit on June 27 to July 1.

A meeting of the executive council of the PSEA has been called in Harrisburg for Jan. 9 by President Charles F. Maxwell, superintendent of the Westmoreland county public schools. Other members of the council from this section of the state are Herbert L. Spencer of the Pennsylvania College for Women at Pittsburgh, Miss Adaline Van Kirk of Bradford Woods, and P. A. Jones of Sharon.

any attention to him until his fourth utterance on the matter which approached a scream.

Speaker Bankhead, about to drop the gavel that would have sent the measure rushing ahead, paused helplessly and stared. Everybody stared. Bernard stared back.

Administration leaders consulted quickly and had to move for a disastrous recess to iron out the matter. Bernard got his wish for debate—one solid hour of it.

Vote Is 403 To 1
Then when a record vote was finally taken he alone stood fast. The vote was 403 to 1. The dissenting voter was Bernard.

Queried by reporters, Bernard quickly revealed that he is 43, a native of Bastia, Corsica, where he lived until he was 13 before coming to America. For the next 14 years he dug ore in the Eveleth iron ranges in northern Minnesota. In 1920 he became a fireman.

Gaining the Farmer-Labor congressional nomination in his first attempt to attain office, Bernard was elected hands down in November when his Democratic opponent withdrew and threw his support to him.

"I voted against the resolution because it did not include all nations," asserted Bernard, who speaks Spanish, French, and Italian fluently.

"I am sympathetic to the Spanish Loyalists, but believe me, that had nothing to do with my stand. I am Mr. Roosevelt's supporter. I am sorry I had to take this stand."

Ex-Lamplighter Sleeps In Chair Because Of Habit

Unable To Sleep In Bed After Dozing In Chair For Twenty Years

(International News Service)
LONDON, Jan. 7.—Arthur Darby, of Workop, Nottinghamshire, Eng., has not slept in a bed for twenty years.

His job as a street lamplighter made him so tired that he got into the habit of sitting in a chair and dozing until dawn.

He ceased to be a lamplighter five years ago but habit still persists—he still sleeps in his chair.

And every night he takes a walk along his old round. He then goes home and dozes in his chair until dawn.

"I can do with very little sleep and be none the worse for it," said he. "Habit is a queer thing. If I broke it now and started to try to sleep in bed I should probably be ill in a week."

Stabilization Fund Extension Will Be Voted

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The Democratic leadership of congress today agreed at a conference with administration officials to extend the life of the $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund, the president's power to devalue gold, and the reconstruction finance corporation until June 30, 1939.

Senator Robinson, Democratic leader of the senate, announced after the conference that three bills would be introduced immediately to extend these federal emergency agencies and enacted before Feb. 1.

A car, owned by Melvin Bower, 227 Cleveland street, and driven by Dean Bower, was reported to have struck her, throwing her to the side of the street.

More Motorists Are Arrested

It was learned today from the state highway patrol that approximately 100 motorists have been arrested by highway patrolmen for speeding automobiles and trucks in this vicinity since the first of the year. It was also learned that the patrolmen have made 45 arrests of motorists for failure to dim their lights when approaching within 500 feet of an oncoming automobile.

Thousands More In Auto Plants To Become Idle

Several Additional Plants To Be Closed Temporarily Because Of Shortages

(International News Service)
DETROIT, Jan. 7.—General Motors today announced 22,375 more of its 235,000 employees would be idle by tomorrow night because of a shortage caused by strikes, bringing the total number of idle in GM plants alone to 75,178 then.

It said the main plant of Chevrolet would close tomorrow night, affecting 14,375 workers, and that the iron foundry at Saginaw, where 5,500 are employed, would close late today. In addition, the small plants at Bay City will lay off 2,300 by nightfall, it was said.

The announcement came shortly after GM officially had estimated that 51,893 workers in 23 of its 69 plants had already been laid off because of strikes. Equally as many workers are idle in plants supplying GM, and it was feared total idle in the auto and allied plants trades tomorrow night would be close to 150,000.

Meantime, one of the Briggs Body plants which serve Ford shut down in Detroit, throwing 1,600 more out of work. Briggs officials said the shutdown was due to shortage of glass and that the plant would reopen Monday.

Anderson, Ind., Business Men Combat Strike

(International News Service)
ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 7.—Business men of this strike-torn city today planned to take legal action to halt the search and seizure of trucks and contents by automotive plant strikers if the trucks are found to be carrying products of General Motors.

State police indicated they will make arrests only to prevent blocking of state roads and for failure to comply with traffic orders.

A mobile force of 350 men has been organized as a road patrol to surround Anderson and stop and search trucks for GM products, Hugh Thompson, organizer of the United Automobile Workers of America here, declared today.

Though he insisted his organization will not adopt violent methods, Thompson revealed today he had received a telegram from Norwood, O., stating 1500 strikers there are ready to come here "to help if needed."

Thompson said the Delco-Remy plants here "will be closed by us" if the company makes any attempt to re-open.

Copper Supplies Emergency Clause Is Revoked Today

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Seeking vital copper supplies, the navy today invoked an emergency clause of the Walsh Healey act lifting its stringent labor provisions so far as this metal is concerned.

This action came only after the navy found itself unable to break a "boycott" against navy purchases by producers because of the necessity of maintaining the standards compulsory for the government contract under the Walsh-Healey act.

Under the emergency provision in the Walsh-Healey act, government departments are permitted to make purchases under emergency conditions. Such purchases may be made without contractors having to observe the maximum hour and minimum wage conditions.

The reply, said Reuters, states in plan to halt participation of volunteers in Spain originally was Germany's, but infers other nations refused to adopt it several months ago.

Reuters said the note would be made public tomorrow.

In a Paris dispatch quoting a semi-official French agency telegram from Rome, Reuters said the Italian reply was "couched in friendly terms but lays down numerous conditions."

FIRE DEVELOPS AT DORMONT

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 7.—Scores of persons were driven from offices, homes and stores when fire raged through a three-story building in the heart of suburban Dormont's business section today.

No one was hurt although several persons had to be taken from the building and lowered to the ground by ladder. At first it was feared one or more persons were trapped in the flaming structure.

The alarm was spread when a white wire-haired terrier dog raced barking through the building.

The structure, the oldest building in Dormont, was built 25 years ago and is a half-block long.

Progress Report Shows Changes In Pennsylvania

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 7.—Pennsylvania's most important industries—coal, iron and steel—are decreasing.

This was disclosed today by the State Planning Board with the announcement a "progress report" was about to be placed in Gov. George H. Earle's hand citing the "sweeping" changes coming over the commonwealth.

Other changes which the board said should be corrected by legislation, included:

Pennsylvania's population was approaching stabilization; one-fifth of the workers are unemployed; many families have incomes too small for needs; one-fourth of the families receive 1-3 of all the income; there were not enough modern dwellings to go around at the rents families can afford to pay; many rural school districts offer "limited" educational advantages; the system of government was "overlapping and confusing"; erosion has caused the loss of much fertile farming soil; many farmers are being "sold out" because of tax delinquencies; most of the state's best forests have been destroyed.

Pennsylvania produces less than half the food it consumes; many streams are badly polluted; many mining communities are entirely dependent upon relief; annually, one out of every six persons is a victim of an automobile accident.

Charges for residential electric service are disproportionately higher than for industrial service; less than 1/2 of the farms have electricity.

"MISTAKE"

MONACO—Students of a Latin class in a leading boys' school here had their heads buried in their "Caesars" when suddenly a revolver shot rang out. One of the lads, 15-year-old Jacques Gruel, slumped over his desk wounded and unconscious. It was then discovered that the shot had accidentally been fired by a classmate, Marcel Meaux, aged 13, who had just bought a revolver. He had put it in his trouser pocket and pressed the trigger by mistake.

Becker Unable To Finance Appeal

Counsel For Convicted Slayer
Petition To Have Jefferson County Stand Expense

(International News Service)
PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., Jan. 7.—Attorneys John Conrad and C. O. Morris, counsel for John Becker, convicted slayer of Katherine Bracken, 42-year-old signal tower operator, today petitioned Jefferson county to pay the costs for his appeal to the state supreme court for a new trial.

The attorneys said Becker was unable to finance the appeal, which will cost $772. To date, Conrad said, the defendant's uncle, John Becker, has paid the attorneys, court costs, etc., but is now without additional funds.

Judge Jesse C. Long set January 16 as the return date to show cause. The convicted slayer was sentenced to die in the electric chair Tuesday afternoon after Judge Long refused a motion for a new trial.

He was convicted for the murder of Katy Bracken in a lonely signal tower of the Shawmut railroad on the night of April 10.

Pension Requests Made To Board

Three Retired Police Officers Present Requests For Pension Wednesday

City Police Pension board convened yesterday and three applications for a pension were received from J. Ed. Elder, C. C. Horner and Nick Faella. George Wyman, who was retired by council with the other three, did not make application, having been injured in December while on duty. Whether or not he will receive full salary during his incapacity depends upon a decision to be given by the city solicitor.

Three officers who have reached the age of 60, plan to ask council to continue them in service. Under the pension ordinance officers who reach 60 years of age must request this permission but officers who reach the age of 65 and who have 20 years continuous service are automatically retired.

Frank Slated For Dismissal At Wisconsin

Board Of Regents At Madison
May Oust President Of University Today

(International News Service)
MADISON, Wis., Jan. 7.—This is the day President Glenn Frank is slated to be fired by the board of regents of the University of Wisconsin.

Only a miracle, like a change of vote by one of the majority of eight regents who agreed on Frank's dismissal, before the public hearing of charges against him began, can alter the course of his destiny.

The public hearing went on to its second day with the regents sitting stubbornly tight in their cramped little committee room in Bascomb hall. Students and townspeople, for whom there were no seats, clogged the exits, got in the regents' hair, breathed down their necks and spread flu germs in the stifling atmosphere.

Two Factions
Although the suspense of the meeting's outcome is far from maddening, both factions of the board, the one that supports Frank and

TAKE WEIGHT OFF TIRED FEET

LOSE FAT THE EASY WAY—Without Starvation Diets, or Back-Breaking, Bending and Rolling Exercises.

If your feet and ankles feel tired and ache all over—because you are carrying too much fat—do something about it. Try the treatment that has helped millions to reduce excess weight.

There's a reason why so many people find dieting slow and often times futile in reducing. The reason, doctors say, is often because a little gland is not working right. All the blood in your body goes through this tiny gland sixteen times every day. If it doesn't pour into the blood stream about one and one-half drops of vital fluid every 24 hours, many people take on ugly fat. This fluid helps Nature to "burn up" excess food and fatty tissue in much the same way as a good "draft" acts in a furnace.

Now, physicians combat this condition by feeding this gland the substance it lacks—and millions of pounds of excess fat has been wiped out in this way.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are based on the same method used by doctors. So don't waste your time or money striving to reduce with starvation diets or back-breaking exercises. Start the Marmola treatment today that millions have used successfully to get rid of excess fat. The formula is in every box so you know just what you are taking. Don't wait—get a box of Marmola today from your druggist.

the one that he claims is taking orders from Governor Phil LaFollette in opposing him, played the comedy out with mock earnestness.

President Frank himself said he stood ready to present what he termed "A management engineer's survey" of the eleven years of his administration.

Hospitalization Plans Are Urged

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 7.—Group hospitalization and medical service plans, it was learned today, will be urged at the 1937 General Assembly.

Following a meeting of representatives of the State Medical Society and other similar organizations with State Insurance Commissioner Owen B. Hunt, it was decided to frame such legislation for introduction at the legislature.

"These plans are similar to those in operation in some other states," a spokesman said. "They are experimental in nature and are a constructive effort on the part of the healing arts group to make it possible, for all who desire, to participate in a budget or pre-payment plan to take care of hospitalization and medical services."

Better Service To Readers Of Newspapers Will Be Discussed

KILL THAT COLD

Give It No Chance to Survive Thru the Use of Half-way Measures!

Treat a cold to kill it, not to coddle it!

Many a cold lightly treated turns into something worse.

Hit a cold "where it lives"—in the system! That means to take an internal treatment.

Hit it with a cold medicine, not with a preparation good for all kinds of ailments.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is the treatment you want.

First of all, it is a cold tablet, made expressly for colds.

Second, it is internal medication and of fourfold effect.

Here's what it does:

First, it opens the bowels, an advisable step in the treatment of a cold.

Second, it checks the infection in the system, a vital step.

Third, it relieves the headache and fever.

DID I BLUSH! WHEN I ASKED A FRIEND TO LEND ME MONEY

Youngstown Man Is Shot To Death

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 7.—Apparently the victim of a stalking killer, Leonard Norch, 34, a WPA worker, formerly employed by the Republic Steel Corp., was found shot to death late Wednesday in the kitchen of his home on the city's West Side.

The body of Norch, also known as Leonardo Norcia, was discovered by Elmer G. Cowan, an attorney. Police said he had been dead about 24 hours. He lived alone.

The room showed no signs of a struggle and $34 in Norch's pockets led police to doubt a robbery theory. No gun was found.

Cowan went to Norch's home after Norch had failed to keep an appointment to sign some legal documents.

"The Story Of A Country Town" Brings Fame To Writer Late In Life

FOREBODINGS

COME TO ALL

By O. O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—I often wonder why people, especially those rooted to America, do not read more of Ed Howe. In particular his "The Story of a Country Town," I notice it has been republished in London, elegantly by some old established firm and the British are making it a best seller.

Howe could not at first get anyone interested in the book and at last set it up in his own print shop. In time, however, Howells and Twain read and praised it. The author is an octogenarian now, almost blind and one of the writers to amass a snug fortune in a small town newspaper.

His "Globe Sights" column in his Atchison paper was one of the most widely quoted in America. A column of homely philosophy that earned him the sobriquet of Sage of Potato Hill. That was his residence when he broke from his wife and took to living in a separate house on the same estate.

He told me a story in Miami one year somewhat typical of his plight. A farmer quarreled with his wife and one black winter night was sent for kindling. He did not come back for years and she lived on there. On another stormy night years later he tumbled an armload of wood in the box with: "Here's your kindling."

I talked to a despairing fellow today whose soul seems to have died within him. He has lived to experience the futility of his most cherished ambitions. I frequently in such exigencies think of my home town and how many worthy, talented people, tied by circumstance, who have never been able to do the things of which they were capable and longed to do. Many a fine actor, musician, dancer and author is literally buried alive in your town and mine.

Every one now and then has a quick flash of foreboding. I recall my wife having a sudden, eldritch stab of pity while wrapping a doll one Christmas for a neighbor child. The child died in a horrible catastrophe before the doll was received. Not long ago I watched workers dropping those long scaffold ropes over the edge of a building near Times Square with an unusual shudder. I idled many moments contemplating the hazards. And in the evening editions I read that one toppled to death. Kipling, walking a country road, felt an urge to cut across a field—a path never taken before. Directly he came upon a relative who had been hunting and had been desperately wounded by accidental discharge of a gun. Kipling's short cut saved a life. Such happenstances are flicked with what we like to think is the supernatural, but realists call coincidence.

My dentist, Guy Campbell, was telling that among patients was a wealthy man, who came for a set of teeth. He had had many from here and there but none had proved satisfactory. After pouring out his complaints, the dentist set about to test his skill. He did the job, weighted with much gold and sent a bill which was naturally a bit high. The patient came in later, all smiles, tore up his bill and made out a check for an amount in amazing excess of the charge. Then he took out a fat check and with his teeth snapped off the end. "That," he said, "is what I have been wanting to do for ten years."

Then—what a rambling column this is turning out to be—there is a mistaken idea business men have no talents. Such as actors and often necktie salesmen. Not long ago I was in an office of a hard-fisted executive. A hell-for-leather sort like Herb Swope. The day's worries were over and for no reason he began some impersonations. One of a floor walker and then of himself as a child singing about Jack Frost. Something about "Who is it that paints the leaves all red? Jack Frost, Jack Frost, etc." It was a howl.

Out of these musings come, too, this fair accompaniment: No Carnegie Hall Symphony can take the place of Grandma's tea kettle, a-singing merrily away back there in the old walnut-gathering days of a prairie autumn.

Thingumbobbs: Damon Runyon finds that Jack Kiernan and Sid Mercer are the only two pipe-smoking sport writers on the big circuit. . . . Among the last of the metropolitan chatters of the week are Jack Norworth and Fred Allen. . . . Messmore Kendall has one of the most valuable collections of Washingtoniana in America.

Most columnists, I suppose, feel much like Ding, the cartoonist, when the wife of a friend came into his office to observe. "You must get a great deal of praise from all sides." "Not a whit more," he answered, "than I need." (Copyright 1937, McNaught Syndicate Inc.)

CONGRESS ACTION TO AWAIT INAUGURATION

Some Measures Will Be Speeded

But Most Legislation Will Await Opening Of President's Second Term

STABILIZATION FUND TO BE CONTINUED

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—After exhibiting record-shattering haste in enacting a Spanish arms embargo on its first legislative day, congress slowed down to a walk pending the inauguration of President Roosevelt for a second term January 20.

Administration leaders hoped for action on six important measures by February 1, but only two of these were of emergency character. These were the expiration on January 31 of the government's authority to operate a $2,000,000,000 fund to stabilize the dollar and the expiration February 1 of the RFC.

The administration was understood to favor continuance of the fund and the RFC. This means congress must prepare the necessary legislation before January 20 so it can be enacted in time.

To Be Acted Upon
The other four measures on which action is expected this month are:
1. The reconstruction finance mortgage corporation, which expired December 31.

2. The soil conservation service, which expired December 31.

3. The president's power to devalue the gold content of the dollar, which will expire January 31.

4. The electric home and farm authority, which expired February 1.

The president's authority to slash the gold content of the dollar was enacted in the same law two years ago that created the huge currency stabilization fund. Many leading financial authorities in congress now wish to separate these powers, so that the stabilization fund can be made permanent while extending the president's gold-slashing powers only temporarily as an emergency measure.

Senator Glass (D) of Virginia, a noted banking authority, was said to favor separation of the powers. He was reported to be opposed to extension of the gold-slashing power on the ground the dollar should be held permanently at its present gold content—even though American citizens are still unable to get any gold or gold certificates.

There may be some delay in receiving the RFC's mortgage company as it is but one of 26 federal agencies now lending money to individuals and corporations. The special senate and house committees, now investigating means to reduce the huge government structure, may recommend shortly that the company be abandoned and its business turned over to some other federal lending agency.

Democrats May Be Split Upon Relief Question

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 7.—Indicating the first possible break in the solid Democratic ranks, the formation of a bloc was quietly underway today among the commonwealths' Democratic legislators, aligning themselves against the recommendations of the Goodrich committee on relief administration.

This movement, it was learned on reliable authority, increased with momentum as the 1937 general assembly concluded its first week of deliberations and adjourned until Monday evening following formal organization and the introduction of some 100 bills, only one of which was administration-sponsored.

The impending rift was expected to break out into the open within the next few weeks in the form of a "counter" program to be introduced by Sen. Anthony J. Cavalcante, Fayette Democrat.

Further indications that trouble was brewing was seen in a bill introduced by Sen. John Dent, Westmoreland Democrat, which provided for the creation of a committee to investigate private charity organizations.

What the ultimate results will be, observers would not venture to predict other than that it would cause no little embarrassment on the part of the administration which might be forced to go in for a bit of legislative "horse-trading" or out and out patronage pressure.

WHEN KIDNEY TROUBLES CAUSES YOU TO GET UP NIGHTS

When Bladder is Irritated When Passage is Difficult When Backache Bothers Flush Poisonous Waste And Acid From Kidneys

GAIN IN HEALTH

If you aren't feeling just right—are nervous—have dizzy spells and occasional backache—study your kidneys and learn more about yourself. Through the delicate filters of the kidneys, acid and poisonous waste are drawn from the blood and discharged from the body thru the bladder—sometimes these filters become clogged with poisonous waste and kidneys do not function properly—they need a good cleaning.

One reliable medicine, highly efficient and inexpensive is GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL Capsules—you can't go wrong on this grand medicine. It has been helping people for 50 years—to correct their aches and pains and to banish uric acid conditions, the aggravation of sciatica, neuritis, neuralgia, lumbago and rheumatism.

So if you have such symptoms of kidney trouble as backache, nervousness, getting up two or three times during the night—scanty, burning or smarting passage—leg cramps—swollen palms or puffy eyes get a 35-cent package of this grand and harmless diuretic at any modern drugstore—it starts the first day on its errand of helpfulness.

But be sure it's GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL Capsules—the original—the genuine—right from Haarlem in Holland.

"Your medicine helped me wonderfully at the Change of Life," says Mrs. F. H. McFarland, Route 5, Box 521C, Forth Worth, Texas.

"My strength was all gone and my nerves were all broken down. I felt tired and discouraged. I heard about the Vegetable Compound and have taken three bottles. I feel stronger in every way and my nerves are much better."

Mrs. Etta Milling, 128 Lumis St. Chester, South Carolina

What Sin Causes Most Sadness In World? Pastor Says

Answer To Be Given At Central Christian On January 17

"What Sin Causes the Most Sadness in the World?" "If you can answer this question correctly you will receive a beautiful framed picture of Christ in the garden of Gethsemane on Sunday evening, January 17, when Rev. Thomas B. Shearer of the Central Christian church, will answer this question in a unique sermon. His message, "The Most Horrible of Sins," will be the first of a series of special messages that are to be given by Rev. Shearer in the "Ten Week Loyalty Campaign" which starts on that date.

Many answers have been submitted such as war, murder, adultery, divorce, lying, stealing, dishonesty, unbelief, the sin against the Holy Ghost, rejecting Christ, hatred, etc. Rev. Shearer states that all of these answers are wrong.

Details Of Romeo Case Revealed In Old Files Of New Castle News

Investigation of the old files of the New Castle News reporting the murder of Francesco Romeo on October 7, 1906, reveal a similarity in part between the stories carried then, and the story told by Rocco Esposito now in the county jail charged with the murder of Romeo. There are some discrepancies also in the two stories which may possibly be accounted for by the passage of the years affecting memory.

The murder occurred on Sunday night, October 7, 1906, at point near the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing Company. According to the first story reported in The News as of Monday, October 8, 1906, a badly injured man had crawled to a brakeman's shanty in the railroad yards on the night before.

Spoke No English

In the Italian language the man spoke to the trainmen, who assumed that he had been injured by a locomotive. They gave him paper and a pencil and he wrote something in Italian. He was taken to the Shenango Valley hospital and informed that he was dying, is reported as saying that he had been walking towards West Pittsburg with Rocco Esposito and a man first reported as Vincones Voiois, later identified as Dominick Caio. He is reported as saying he had been shot by both Esposito and Caio, who had then picked him up and carried him to an embankment where they threw him over.

Caio was found the next day in a boarding house on South Jefferson street, in bed with his clothes on and a 22 revolver at his side. The revolver was loaded but gave signs of having been shot recently. Caio was a boy of 17 and protested his innocence.

Indicted Jointly

The then county detective J. Lee McFate indicted Dominick Caio and Rocco Esposito for the murder but Esposito could not be found. On the witness stand Caio is reported as saying that he had seen Esposito pull out a gun and shoot Romeo but that he (Caio) had fled to Mahoningtown where he took a street car back to New Castle.

The statement of Esposito in the county jail that he had written letters to Romeo in Buffalo seem to be borne out by the story of the case in 1906. Romeo told the authorities that he worked in Buffalo, N. Y., and that Esposito was a cousin of his. He said that another cousin was Stranges Comedillo and that while he (Romeo) was chief of police in a southern Italian town he had trouble with Comedillo and shot him. Later Romeo was acquitted on the grounds of self defense and came to Buffalo, N. Y., where he was a salesman for a fruit house. He said that Esposito wrote him from New Castle urging him to come to West Pittsburg and purchase a grocery store that was for sale. Romeo had been in town about a day when the shooting occurred. Most of the people in the case at the time are now dead. Joseph V. Cunningham was district attorney, Dr. Jos. Cox as coroner, Creighton Logan was lieutenant of police. Officers Connors and McConahy were on the call. Caio was to have been defended by Attorneys S. P. Emery and H. A. Wilkinson, but Emery was sick and R. K. Aiken replaced him. Mr. Wilkinson is the only attorney yet alive. Dr. L. W. Wilson was called on the scene, when Romeo was taken to the hospital.

On Court House Hill

Business has increased in the office of the sheriff according to the yearly recapitulation of the books in Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard's office. In 1936 the receipts were $24,370.99 which is $1348.40 more than in 1935. During 1936, 70 persons were taken to institutions of the state. The western penitentiary got 17, the Allegheny county workhouse got 18, Huntingdon got 10, Torrance got 21, and Dixon, Muncy, Fairview and Aspinwall each got one. Ten people were returned from the workhouse, one from the western penitentiary and one from Muncy.

During the year Mrs. Pritchard, matron of the jail served 40,000 meals, approximately, which sounds like a lot of food. The prisoner days in the county jail for the year were 14,402 which means an average of about 38 prisoners per day during the year.

Prisoners are fed substantial food but few non-essentials. What is served is clean and wholesome and rarely is there a complaint on the service or the quality. Which in a jail is something.

The county commissioners are still listening to complaints. Sitting as a board of appeals they have heard scores of taxpayers complain of their assessments. The difficulty is there is no uniform manner of making assessments. The city has two assessors who assess the property for city, school and library purposes. In each ward of the city and in each township there is a county assessor which means 31 assessors are doing the work for county taxes.

Jury Commissioners George Forrest and B. Frank Thorne, with Sheriff Pritchard and the secretary Mrs. Miller pulled a traverse jury for February on Wednesday. The wheel used by the commissioners is so old that nobody remembers when it was first put into use. It looks like a round wooden cake box with a tin cover. This is set on a spindle and after a few whirls the names are pulled out. When the jury is drawn the opening in the wheel is sealed and locked and placed in the care of the sheriff.

A report was received by the sheriff on Wednesday of the escape from Torrance, of Glen Dale, committed from this county about 45 days ago. He was seen in New Castle Wednesday afternoon.

Letters testamentary have been issued to James Lewis Gibson, Homer Hazen Gibson and W. W. Stevenson as executors in the estate of the late Hester E. Gibson of New Castle who died on February 19, 1936.

Letters of administration have been issued to William Curry as executor in the estate of the late Ida M. Peebles of Shenango Township who died in June, 1936.

Registrations are slow this far in the new period, according to Chief Clerk Thomas C. Edmunds. All persons who have arrived at the age of 21 since the last registration period are now eligible to register and any person wishing to change his registration can do so. There will be no election in this county until September when the municipal primaries will be held.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard has promised himself one thing when he leaves the office next January. He is going some place where he has neither alarm clocks, telephones or roosters and sleep. Since he assumed office there have been comparatively few nights when he wasn't awakened by a call from a citizen who wanted steps taken about something or other. A fight out in the country, chicken thieves, trespassers, these and a score of other complaints rouse him from sleep. "It's a great life" declares the sheriff. "I promised when I was elected that I would answer any calls and I've done it and intend to do it as long as I am sheriff. But boy, some nights it sure is tough tearing away from that pillow."

Mild Weather Here Spares Water Mains

Mild weather so far this winter has greatly checked damage often resulting at this season of the year from freezing water pipes, the New Castle Water company reported today.

The water firm pointed out, however, that most of the losses last winter came during the January cold wave. There was little damage before January 1.

Police Department Receipts Of Year Reach $9,168 Total

Police department receipts for 1936 amounted to $9,168.19, according to Earl Wimer, city controller. This was twice as much money as was collected in the year previous, $4,608.43, having come into the city coffers through fines and forfeits. In 1934, the city police department collected $12,050.55, according to Wimer.

But if America got into a desperate fight, European countries would manage to keep out all right.

Here's Simple Way to Ease a Cold

Two Quick-Acting, Quick-Dissolving Bayer Aspirin Tablets with a Glass of Water

The modern way to ease a cold is this: Two Bayer Aspirin tablets the moment you feel a cold coming on. Then repeat, if necessary, according to instructions in the box.

At the same time, if you have a sore throat, crush and dissolve three BAYER tablets in one-third glass of water. And gargle with this mixture twice.

The Bayer Aspirin you take internally will act to combat fever and the pains which usually accompany colds. The gargle will act as a medicinal gargle to provide almost instant relief from rawness and pain. It is really marvelous; for it acts like a local anesthetic on the irritated membrane of your throat.

Try this way. Your doctor, we know, will endorse it. For it is a quick, effective means of combating a cold. Ask for Bayer Aspirin by the full name at your druggist's—not for "aspirin" alone.

Eddie "Bus" Strausbaugh Pulls Up With Injured Ankle In Practice

Preliminary Game At 7 O'Clock, Two Wrestling Bouts Are On Card

It never rains but what it pours, is a very common expression among the kin-folk, and it certainly is applicable to New Castle High's misfortune the past two weeks. Two star performers out of the lineup with injured ankles, Ambridge High is due here tomorrow night to try for its second Section Three victory.

EDDIE STRAUSBAUGH

The latest victim of the "injury" jinx is Eddie "Bus" Strausbaugh the sterling young center who played a whale of a ball game at Brighton on Tuesday night getting six baskets for 12 of the New Castle points. It is very doubtful if Strausbaugh will play Friday night. His ankle is paining him quite a bit today. George "Pop" Adams is still getting around with the aid of a cane, and there is no hope of him getting back into uniform for several weeks yet.

The preliminary game Friday night will find the New Castle High Reserves against the Ambridge High Seconds at 7 o'clock.

Something new is to be tried out Friday night. Between halves of the preliminary game according to Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner there will be a wrestling match between two high school boys. There will also be a wrestling match between halves of the main go. Instead of the monotonous wait now, there will be some excitement for the fans.

Double Attraction

The gates will open at 6:30 o'clock Friday night, it was announced. The prices for the game will be the same as usual, 15, 35 and 50.

Ambridge High with Moe Rubenstein directing will come to New Castle loaded for "bear". It would be the crowning achievement of the year for the Bridges to upset the champions of last year, and if they do, it is going to take a lot of basketball to oust the Ambridge team from the top of the league, because the way they made Beaver Falls like it the other night, means that they have a fighting club. This chap Ziolkowski will probably be here with the Ambridge team, he couldn't possibly develop lumbago or house-maid's knee before tomorrow night, and the fans can rest assured that they will see a fine basketball player in action. Against the Falls team Tuesday night he made something like 14 points. Which is a lot of points anytime.

Bombk or Ryglinski. Just who will get the starting center job Friday night in place of the injured Strausbaugh is not known, but the choice is said to lie between Bombk and Ryglinski, the latter has been seeing a little service at the jump-up station, and may get the nod, but this chap Bombk has also been playing a lot of basketball for the Reserves and may get his big chance tomorrow night.

If New Castle gets by Friday night against the Bridges, then the outlook will not be so bad, but to lose to Ambridge would not be so good.

Perry Likes Pro Tennis

Defeats Ellsworth Vines Before Crowd Of 17,630 In New York City

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—"I was scared stiff," Fred Perry said today, relishing his inauguration as a professional tennis trapper and the victory over Ellsworth Vines that made him the outstanding player in the world.

"I was not sure how I would be received by that tremendous crowd at Madison Square Garden last night and I was doubtful as to how my games would stand up under artificial lighting and on canvas-covered courts.

"Well, now, I can say that professional tennis is a bit of all right. . . I think I shall like it. . . The crowd was very kind and the strange conditions under which I played proved to be no great handicap."

Conjecture has it that the Englishman received—on a percentage arrangement—about $17,000 of the all-time record tennis gate of $58,119.50 paid into the Garden box office by a capacity and record tennis crowd of 17,630.

One More Year
"One more year of this and I am going to quit for good," Vines' immediate reaction last night to the first major sports upset of 1937. "One more year of this, then for a lot of golf back in California and enough tennis instructing to pay the grocery bills."

"The only way I can explain what happened is to say I was way off, especially my backhand, and Perry was almost perfect. . . I have been sick, with a temperature of 101½ Tuesday night, and I have been taking too much medicine. . . But that's no alibi. . . Perry has the flu, too. . . Anyhow, I'm getting too old for competitive tennis."

Vines, the champion, took the small end of the purse, his cut being estimated at about $12,000. The troupe completed preparations today for the get-away on the tour. Cleveland tomorrow night, Chicago Saturday, Detroit, Pittsburgh and Newark next week, then Boston, Buffalo, Philadelphia, thence through the south and westward.

TALES IN TIDBITS

By BILL BRAUCHER
Central Press Sports Editor

Ten years take a terrific toll of men and women in sports. Turning back the pages to 1927, a checkup shows hardly a man who then was at the pinnacle, remains in the public eye.

Gene Tunney was world's heavyweight champion. So swift is the turnover that probably not more than half of the people you asked would be able to identify him by his nickname, the "Fighting Marine."

Who was light heavyweight champion? Perhaps you'll remember if we give you his nickname, the "Raggle of the North." Yes, Jack Delaney. Delaney had won it from Berlenbach. He retired in 1927 and the venerable Mike McGuire then claimed it. It was not until October that Tommy Loughran was proclaimed champ after winning from McGuire.

The middleweight champion was Mickey Walker, now a New York caddy proprietor. You wouldn't guess the welter champion—Pete Latzo. The lightweight champ was Sammy Mandell. Featherweight, Louis (Kid) Kaplan. Bantamweight, Charles (Phil) Rosenberg. Just names now, and with the exception of Walker, the names do not stand for much in boxing history.

Cards And Yankees
The Cardinals were baseball champions in the 1926 world series. That was even before Frank Frisch came to the team. Jess Haines is the only remaining member of that team. The Yankees came back to win in 1927, and the only players remaining of that crew are Gehrig and Lazzari.

Bobby Jones was the national open champion, having won the title at Columbus, O., in 1926, and the name of the amateur champion was George Von Elm, who popped back in the picture recently by winning a tournament, the first event he has won for several years.

Alabama and Stanford were the powers of the gridiron, battling to a 7 to 7 tie in the Tournament of Roses game of 1927. It seems to me that about that time? Let's look at that about that time. How many can you name, offhand?

Who won the Kentucky Derby in 1927? Well, I know the horse was Col. F. B. Bradley's Bubbling Over, and he was ridden by A. Johnson, because I've got the book right in front of me. In 1927 Whiskery won it, piloted by Linus (Pony) McAttee. My, my, but that seems a long time ago!

Track and field? Let's see, when did Charlie Paddock set that 100-meter record in 10.4 seconds? What about that time? Let's look at the book. Here it is: 100 meters. Charley Paddock, 10.4 seconds, year 1921. What, 1921! In 1927 the track star of Canada's great Percy Williams was rising. Roland Locke was holder of the 220-yard record, at 20.6. The Olympic 100-meter record was held by D. F. Lippincott, 10.6 seconds, set in 1912.

Looking Up Tennis
In tennis the United States men's singles champion was Rene La Coste, of France. Molla Mallory was women's champion, breaking into the reign of Helen Wills Moody by a victory in 1926. Jean Borotra was Wimbledon champion, to be cast, The Yankees came back to win in 1927, and the only players remaining of that crew are Gehrig and Lazzari.

These were only a few of the champions of that far-off day, but they do give us a rough, very rough, idea of what has been going on.

Two Points And More
In Some Cases

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The recovery movement in stocks gained momentum today on a wide front. Gains in pivotal issues ran to 2 points and more, with recently depressed motors and steels in the van of the upswing.

Chrysler set the pace for motor shares, spurring 2 points. General Motors gained half as much. Nash also was active and ran up close to a point to cross 17. The latter moved up with Kelvinator, both signaling their last trading day as separate corporations. The new stock—Nash Kelvinator Corp.—will be admitted to dealings tomorrow.

U. S. Steel and Bethlehem each advanced more than a point. Rails were prominent, with such issues as Atchafalpa, Great Northern and N. Y. Central gaining a point or more.

Several issues reached new 1936-37 peaks, including Mengel preferred, up 3 points on top of yesterday's spurt of 6, Armour to 8 1/4, American Car & Foundry and South Porto Rico Sugar.

Utilities, rubbers, chemicals and farm implements were firm spots. Dupont and Deere each climbed more than 2 points.

Bonds displayed a strong tone. Grains spurred as much as 2 cents a bushel. Cotton also was firm.

ing In Stricken City—Designs Changed

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Jan. 7.—Marked progress was seen today in the construction of bridges to replace those spans that were swept away by the 1936 spring flood.

Final touches are being added to the new steel structures that will replace the old wooden bridge, linking the lower Cambria works of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation with Cambria City at Front street.

With re-designing of abutments completed, work was resumed on the Moxham-Fernside bridge—one of the most important suburban spans to be washed away by the St. Patrick's Day high water.

Re-designing of the abutment was necessitated with the failure to reach a solid rock foundation approximately 25 feet below the river channel as was specified by the contract. Instead of one large concrete abutment, eight smaller abutments will be constructed.

Workers today were busy pouring concrete for the mid-channel span of the Riverside bridge. Work of pouring the concrete started last night. Engineers expect to have the job completed within the next 18 hours.

Approximately 150 cubic yards of concrete will be required. Because of the bridge washout, the "mix" must be hauled approximately eight miles over a circuitous route.

Car Is Fatal To Emmet
Hisey, 16, Of Darlington, R. D. 2UNABLE TO STOP
SMALL CAR IN TIME

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 7.—Emmet Hisey, 16, of Darlington R. D. 2 met almost instant death at 9:30 this morning in a peculiar accident on the P. & L. E. railroad near the Mathews Conveyor company at Ellwood. He was dead before his arrival at the local hospital.

According to an investigation conducted by County Coroner Orville Potter, the dead youth and two others, Ernest Oates, 26, of East Palestine, O., and William Bratt, 18, of Darlington R. D. 2, had been hired by Myer Pazer, a junk dealer of East Palestine, O., to load some junk at the Mathews Conveyor company onto a small truck on the railroad track.

Another small truck had preceded this one, which the employees of the Mathews plant moved down a siding. They were E. W. Boots and son Harold, of Bridge street-extension and William Warnock of this city. This truck had been moved past the loading platform so as to make room for the other. One of the youths was having difficulty in getting the junk truck started down the grade with a long pole as a lever, so young Hisey went back to help. As soon as it was started he rushed back to the front and climbed behind the brake of the truck, on the right-hand side. Another companion was to his left.

The truck had gained considerable momentum going down grade, which caused young Hisey to become alarmed. He gave a quick turn to the brake, which was insufficient, but managed to throw his body to the right. The truck proceeded down the main track and started to come abreast of the first car moved down by the Mathews employees. The first car was stopped not far from where the siding joined the main track, which gave the second sufficient space for their loading. When the youth failed to stop his truck in time it went down the main track and his body was crushed between the two cars.

When questioned by County Coroner Potter the junk dealer denied hiring the three youths. The three employees of the Mathews plant witnessed the accident. They yelled a warning, but it was not heeded.

Sankey Funeral
Here On SaturdayLocal Tube Mill Gives Remarkable Record Of Mr.
Sankey At Plant

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 7.—Funeral services for Clinton E. Sankey, who passed away Wednesday morning will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home on the Country Club road.

Rev. J. R. Routledge, pastor of the Providence Baptist church of North Sewickley, of which the deceased was a member, will officiate. Interment will be made in the Graceland Cemetery of New Castle where the Masonic Order will conduct services.

Mill Record

Mr. Sankey came to Ellwood City in 1909, locating on a nearby farm. In 1916 he entered the services of the National Tube Company as laboratory inspector in the Finishing Department, and when his turn came he was made a member of the Department Safety Committee, immediately attracting attention because of his whole-hearted interest and sane ideas in regard to safety.

In 1917 he was given charge of the Shelby Social Club to promote good fellowship among the employees, and worked to this end along social, recreational and educational lines.

In 1918 Mr. Sankey was made Chief Safety Inspector of Ellwood Works and remained in this position until May, 1929, during which time "lost-time" accidents for the entire plant was reduced by 81 per cent. Mr. Sankey was completely sold on the importance of safety, being convinced that life and limb of employee should be given consideration before production, and with this ideal constantly in mind, he worked untiringly, unceasingly and enthusiastically, with the deep conviction that he was his "brother's keeper," and that the Company employing him derived the larger benefit—in production and therefore in profits, by his attack on the safety problem. He was gifted with a genial personality and being intensely human, with broad experience, he created confidence in his fellow workers and was given hearty cooperation by his associates in all of his activities.

On June 1st, 1929, Mr. Sankey was made Supervisor of Accident and Waste Prevention with headquarters in the general office of the National Tube Company. His duties took him to all plants of the company in his efforts to eliminate loss of time through accidents, and waste of materials and labor in operations.

On January 1, 1935, Mr. Sankey was transferred to Ellwood Works as Safety Supervisor.

Problems Confronting Jew Will Be Discussed At Temple Israel

TWO RABBIS TO LEAD DISCUSSION

For the first time, a Jewish forum is to be held in New Castle on January 14 in the vestry rooms of Temple Israel. The subject for discussion will be "What Constitutes a Jew?" Rabbi Pinchos Katz of Tifereth Israel synagogue and Rabbi Norman H. Diamond of Temple Israel will present several aspects of the problem, after which the audience will put questions to the speakers or make personal comments on the question. Sherman K. Levine will be the chairman of the evening. Several organizations are cooperating towards the success of the project. Those deserving of special mention are the Council of Jewish Women under the leadership of Mrs. William Cosel and Hadassah, under the leadership of Mrs. L. Kohn. It is expected that the Sisterhoods of the temple and synagogue will also lend their assistance to make the inauguration of the occasion an auspicious one. The forum will have for its aim the clarification and crystallization of some of the vexing problems that confront the Jew today, both as individuals and as a group. If sufficient interest is manifested, there will be a forum held once a month for the next three months.

War doesn't become more dreadful. Like ignorance, it just seems worse because we know better.

Lower Fire Loss At Grove City

(Special To The News)

GROVE CITY, Jan. 7.—Fire damage in Grove City during 1936 decreased $1400 over 1935, and $2500 over 1934, according to a report submitted by Fire Chief William Horstman. The report showed only 28 fire calls, 23 in the borough and five outside.

During the winter of 1936, firemen fought the most unusual blaze in the history of the borough, when waste oil accumulated on ice beneath the Main street bridge, was ignited by a skater's match and caused serious damage to the bridge. Firemen fought 12 residence fires, 12 grass and swamp fires, one of which smoldered for 10 days in August; one auto fire, and answered two false alarms. The estimated damage in the borough was $3,250, compared with $4,725 in 1935 and $5,654 in 1934. Damage in rural fires was $4,650, as against $5,575 in 1935, and $9,180 in 1934. Firemen received only $272 last year, $301 in 1935, and $403 in 1934, payable at $2.00 per call per fireman, and a specified rate after the first hour.

Overlooking this hamlet nestled in a narrow valley is Gabriel's Knob, which to life-long residents of the community isn't more than a mountain, but to visitors Gabriel's Knob is a beautiful peak, stately and awe-inspiring.
